

Course Title:	SHIP SIMULATOR AND BRIDGE TEAMWORK (BTM)-(BRM)
----------------------	--

Course Code:	IMO MODEL COURSE 1.22
---------------------	-----------------------

Duration:	5 Days (09:00 – 17:00)
------------------	------------------------

Target Group(s):	MASTERS – DECK OFFICERS – MARITIME INDUSTRY OFFICE PERSONNELLS
-------------------------	--

Scope & Objectives:

- Additional experience concerning the abilities and the maneuverability of the vessels
- Acquisition of experience on the effects on the behavior of the ship from lateral wind, current, shallow water effects, banks and narrow channels
- The importance of passage plan and the need for an alternative plan “B”
- A greater comprehension and awareness of efficient bridge teamwork during watch keeping and ship handling, in normal and in emergency situations.
- Efficient management through development of interpersonal relationships
- Resource management –team working – leadership – Crisis management
- Analysis and development of the critical areas of Delegation-Cultural differences – Change of watch briefing
- Interactions between the pilot – master – navigating officers

Entry Requirements:

- Seaman’s Book No and/or Passport No.
- 2 Photos
- Certificate of competency

Gained Qualifications:

The course consists of theory and bridge simulator exercises.
This IMO model course, running in accordance with STCW 78 as amended, (Manila amendments) is enriched with human elements such as Crisis Management, Resource Management, Leadership, Teamwork and Managerial Skills modules, and deals with pilots – masters – officers interaction.
Seamen are provided with experience in handling ships under various conditions and knowledge of a more effective and safer management with the proper use of all available human resources.

Certification:

Certificate of attendance as per detailed IMO Course 1.22 framework and Swedish club Academy (MRM) detailed outlines accredited by Malta, Liberia and the Marshall Islands Administrations.